

Conference Agenda

Session Overview

Date: Monday, 10/July/2023

10:30am - 12:00pm	Registration Location: Historical Building of the University of Barcelona - Hall
12:00pm - 1:30pm	Opening Keynote: Alice W. Nderitu: Hate Speech and Atrocity Crimes Location: Historical Building of the University of Barcelona - Paranimf
1:30pm - 2:30pm	Reception Location: Historical Building of the University of Barcelona - Hall
2:30pm - 3:30pm	Registration Location: School of Law - Hall (New Building)
3:30pm - 4:50pm	Session A1.1: Environmental Intersections: Genocide in the Anthropocene Location: Room D201 Chair: Emily Sample , George Mason University; Fund for Peace, United States of America Environmental Intersections: Genocide in the Anthropocene Chair(s): Emily Sample (George Mason University; Fund for Peace) Presentations of the Symposium panelist Rachel Killean ; rachel.killean@sydney.edu.au University of Sydney School of Law panelist Stavros Pantazopoulos ; stavros.pantazopoulos@helsinki.fi University of Helsinki; Asser Institute panelist Regina Paulose ; reginapaulose@gmail.com Independent Attorney	Session A1.2: Genocide Education Location: Room D202 Chair: Kate English , Educators' Institute for Human Rights (EIHR), United States of America Unsettling Narratives: Teaching and Learning About Genocide in a Settler Space George D. Dalbo University of Minnesota, United States of America Educating Youth about the Rwandan Genocide Jillian Paige LaBranche University of Minnesota, United States of America	Session A1.3: Cultural Genocide Location: Room D203 Chair: Armen Marsoobian , Southern Connecticut State University/University of Connecticut, United States of America The Cultural Appropriation Policy of Azerbaijan after the Second Artsakh War. Case of Dadivank Monastery Hayastan Martirosyan Armenian Genocide Museum-Institute, Armenia Scared of Sacredness: Genocidal Heritage Crime as Conflict Resolution in the Authoritarian States of Azerbaijan and China Simon Maghakyan Cranfield University, UK The Uyghurs: A Case for Making the Prohibition on Cultural Genocide a Soft Law Norm in International Law Hilly Moodrick-Even Khen Ariel university, Israel	Session A1.4: Stories from the Near East Location: Room D206 Chair: Emraan Azad , Liberation War Museum, Bangladesh, People's Republic of Humanitarianism in the Near East in the 1920s Hrag David Yacoubian University of British Columbia, Canada and Memorial University of Newfoundland, Canada Making Christians by Force: Genocide Rhetoric as a Weapon during the Lebanese Civil Wars Sean Lee The American University in Cairo, Egypt Genocide Denial Without Evidence of Genocide? The Emergence of Ancient Israel as a Case Study Monica Rey Boston University, United States of America	Session A1.5: Genocide through Birth Control Location: Room D308 Chair: Alenka Antloga , Information Commissioner of the Republic of Slovenia, United Nations Association of Slovenia, Slovenia Power of life and death over children under the rule of the Young Turks and the Argentine military dictatorship Nélida Elena boulgourdjian University of Tres de Febrero, Argentine Republic Erasing mother-and father-hood: Forced sterilisation as an act of genocide Anna Gopsill, Annabel Higgins University of London, United Kingdom
5:00pm - 6:30pm	Keynote: Chile Eboe-Osuji: Quantifying Genocidal Intent: An object lesson in imprudence? Location: School of Law - Aula Magna Chair: Elisenda Calvet Martinez , Universitat de Barcelona, Spain Words of Welcome, Dr. Olesti, Dean of the Faculty of Law (UB)
6:45pm - 8:30pm	Cultural activities: Film: Invisible Republic (Republic of Artsakh) Location: School of Law - Aula Magna In light of the ongoing humanitarian crisis in Artsakh (Nagorno-Karabakh), Invisible Republic has been made available digitally in every territory of the world. Inspired by the wartime diary of Lika Zakaryan, the award-winning documentary will be screened for the conference. Lika Zakaryan will be present to introduce the film and take questions.	Emerging: Emerging's scholars afterwork Location: Santa Clara's Terrace Afterwork for emerging scholar's networking at the restaurant Santa Clara's terrace. Address: Jiménez i Iglesias, 11-13 (5 minutes walk from the Faculty of Law)

Date: Tuesday, 11/July/2023

8:15am - 5:00pm	Registration Location: School of Law - Hall (New Building)
8:45am - 10:05am	Session B1.1: Teaching the Truth in Education Location: Room D201 Chair: Tonny Raymond Kirabira , University of Portsmouth, United Kingdom Confronting the Past: Teaching About and For Truth-Telling and Reconciliation George Dalbo, Joe Eggers University of Minnesota, United States of America Genocide education and memories in Rwanda. Controversial issues Francois Masabo University of Rwanda, Rwanda Objective truth in education: combatting Holocaust distortion both globally and locally Paul Kutner Yeshiva University, United States of America	Session B1.2: Shadows of Francoism in Spain Location: Room D202 Chair: Rosa Ana Alija Fernández , University of Barcelona, Spain The Men of the New Spain: Contested Narratives of Francoist Boarding Schools in Spain Tibisay Navarro Maña University of Minnesota, United States of America 'The Dark Side of the Moon'. Perpetrators, denialism and collective memory management in Spain Antonio Míguez Macho Universidade de Santiago de Compostela, Spain Liminal Spaces: The Spanish Military Museum in Mallorca Marcia Esparza John Jay College of Criminal Justice, United States of America	Session B1.3: Colonial and Post-Colonial Atrocities Location: Room D203 Chair: Beverley Joy Pratt , University of the Western Cape, South Africa Conquering Siberia: The Case for Genocide Recognition Nathaniel Hill GENOCIDE WATCH, United States of America Lost and Found: A Fresh Look into the 1948 Massacres of Hyderabad Mohammed Ayub Khan Independent Scholar, Canada Colonial injustices between reticence and reconciliation: The case of the Herero and Nama genocide Rachele Marconi Università degli Studi di Macerata, Italy	Session B1.4: Memory and Memorials within Post-Atrocity Societies Location: Room D206 Chair: Stephanie Wolfe , Weber State University, United States of America Memory and memorials within post-atrocity societies Chair(s): Stephanie Wolfe (Weber State University, United States of America) Presentations of the Symposium Debates on the nature and function of memorials in Rwanda Anna-Marie de Beer; Annamarie.DeBeer@up.ac.za University of Pretoria Troubled Memory: The Contentious Relationship between Memory and Space in Northern Ireland Kerry Whigham; kwhigham@binghamton.edu Binghamton University "Comfort Women": Exclusion and Inclusion of Memory and Memory Practices in Japan and South Korea Stephanie Wolfe; stephaniewolfe@weber.edu Weber State University	Session B1.5: The Subtleties of the Memory of Genocide Location: Room D308 Chair: Sarah Snyder , Binghamton University, United States of America Remembering genocide, reinforcing power. Attributing roles in the memory of genocide Timothy Williams University of the Bundeswehr Munich, Germany Making Visible Historical Trauma: Counter-cartographies and Chronic Urban Trauma Katie Marie Fisher University of Texas at Dallas, United States of America
10:10am - 10:30am	Coffee Break
10:35am - 11:55am	Session B2.1: Russia's Discourses on Genocide Location: Room D201 Chair: Elisenda Calvet Martinez , Universitat de Barcelona, Spain Self-Righteous Opportunism: Soviet Genocide Polemics vs. Russian Holocaust Discourse Anton Weiss-Wendt Norwegian Center for Holocaust and Minority Studies, Norway 90 years of a psychological warfare: how the Soviet/Russian propaganda has been silencing, discrediting and	Session B2.2: Post (1994) Genocide Rwanda Location: Room D202 Chair: Néilda Elena boulgourdjian , University of Tres de Febrero, Argentine Republic Memory, Religion, and Authoritarianism in Post (1994)-Genocide Rwanda Kate E. Temoney Montclair State University, United States of America Imagining Justice: Legal Aid and Gender in Post-Genocide Rwanda Jacob Caponi University of Michigan, United States of America	Session B2.3: Coping Mechanisms of Studying and Teaching Genocide and Mass Atrocities Location: Room D203 Chair: Sarah Snyder , Binghamton University, United States of America Coping Mechanisms of Studying and Teaching Genocide and Mass Atrocities Chair(s): Sarah Snyder (Binghamton University) Presentations of the Symposium Coping Mechanisms of Studying and Teaching Genocide and Mass Atrocities Sarah Snyder¹, Amanda Nichols¹, Ronan Lee², Maartje Weerdesteijn³; sarah.seiselmeyer@utdallas.edu ¹ Binghamton University,	Session B2.4: Legal Implications of Hate Speech and Incitement to Genocide Location: Room D206 Chair: Alenka Antloga , Information Commissioner of the Republic of Slovenia, United Nations Association of Slovenia, Slovenia Hate speech, incitement to genocide, and genocide: novel legal responses to familiar challenges Yuliya Mik^{1,2} 1: The Hebrew University of Jerusalem, Israel; 2: The Victorian Bar, Australia Direct and Public Incitement to Commit Genocide: Legal Mechanisms for "Uprooting Seeds" of Incitement in Authoritarian States Gor Levon Yedigaryan Individual submission, Armenia

	manipulating the artificial famine in Ukraine of 1932–1933 (Holodomor) Tetiana Boriak Vilnius University, Lithuania Irredentism & Partition: Prospective Triggering Factors Paving the Road to Manifold Forms of Genocide? Vasiliki {Vicky} Kapogianni, Eric Loefflad University of Kent, United Kingdom	²Loughborough University, ³Vrije Universiteit Amsterdam Coping with Fieldwork at the Site of Genocide and Mass Atrocities Sarah Snyder; sarah.seiselmeyer@utdallas.edu Binghamton University Coping in a Campus Community Amanda Nichols; anichols@binghamton.edu Binghamton University Research in the Information Age and the Risks of Researcher Vicarious Trauma Ronan Lee; R.Lee@lboro.ac.uk Loughborough University Teaching about Genocide: Emotions in and around the Classroom Maartje Weerdesteijn; m.weerdesteijn@vu.nl Vrije Universiteit Amsterdam	A Theoretical and Empirical Approach to the Study on the Persecution of Rohingya Considering Incitement to Genocide Md Khalid Rahman American International University-Bangladesh, Bangladesh, People's Republic of
12:05pm - 1:35pm	Keynote: Reed Brody: 25 years after Rome and Pinochet - The record of international justice Location: School of Law - Aula Magna Chair: Elisenda Calvet Martinez, Universitat de Barcelona, Spain War crimes prosecutor. Cases include Hissène Habre, Augusto Pinochet, Jean-Claude Duvalier, Yahya Jammeh. Author of "To Catch a Dictator."
1:40pm - 2:40pm	Genocide Journals Meeting Location: Room 1		Lunch Location: School of Law - Hall (Main Building)
2:50pm - 4:10pm	Session B3.1: Words Matter: Language, Genocide and Mass Atrocities Location: Room D201 Chair: Sarah Snyder, Binghamton University, United States of America Natural Language Processing in Genocide Research – Resources, Opportunities, and Limitations of an Emerging Field Miriam Schirmer¹, Paul Philipp Stewens² 1: Technical University Munich, Germany; 2: Graduate Institute of International and Development Studies, Geneva, Switzerland A Special Kind of Hate? The Rhetoric of Genocide Sascha Nanlohy¹, Benjamin Goldsmith², Svitlana Chernykh², Zoe Knight² 1: The University of Sydney, Australia; 2: Australian National University	Session B3.2: Addressing Colonial Atrocities Location: Room D202 Chair: Kawser ahmed, University of Winnipeg, Canada Mirroring Truths: How liberal democracies are challenging their foundational narratives Carles Fernandez-Torne Ramon Llull, Spain How to address atrocity crimes committed during colonialism? The case of the Belgian parliamentary commission for dealing with the colonial past Elisenda Calvet Martinez¹, Stephan Parmentier² 1: Universitat de Barcelona, Spain; 2: Ku Leuven, Belgium Progress? Tracking Settler Denial and Recognition of Colonial Genocide in Canada Andrew Basso, Andrea Perrella	Session B3.3: Recovery and Healing from Genocidal Violence: Past and Present Location: Room D203 Chair: Tracy Maria Lemos, Huron University College, Canada Recovery and Healing from Genocidal Violence: Past and Present Chair(s): Tracy M. Lemos (Huron University College, University of Western Ontario), Tristan S. Taylor (University of New England, Australia, Australia) Presentations of the Symposium In the Shadow of Power: Memorializing and Healing by Victims and Perpetrators of Ancient Mediterranean Urbicide Tristan S. Taylor; tristan.taylor@une.edu.au University of New England, Australia Name Lists and Memorials as Practices of Healing from Anonymizing Genocidal Violence Tracy M. Lemos; tracy.lemos@gmail.com Huron University College, University of Western Ontario Post-genocide healing and recovery in the digital realm David J. Simon; david.simon@yale.edu	Session B3.4: (De)Constructing Genocide, Building Peace Location: Room D206 Chair: Paul Kutner, Yeshiva University, United States of America The Process of Genocidal Consolidation in Rwanda and Cambodia Eelco van der Maat Leiden University, Netherlands, The Seni Kerakyatan (The People's Art): Visual Culture and Resistance Strategies in Indonesia Shelly Clay-Robison University of Baltimore, United States of America "A Very Dangerous Thing": Evaluating the Prevailing Peace in Kenya's 2022 Troubled Electoral Environment" David Pollard Traugott American University, United States of America	Session B3.5: Responding to Atrocity: International Reactions Put into Question Location: Room D308 Chair: Emily Sample, George Mason University; Fund for Peace, United States of America Forgotten comrades: Czechoslovakia's no reaction to genocide in Indonesia 1965–1966 Jiří Lach Palacký University, Czech Republic Britain's 'Unfinest Hour'? From Sarajevo to Srebrenica: The British reaction to the unfolding crises in Bosnia Lorna Waddington University of Leeds, United Kingdom Words vs. Deeds? Australian responses to distant atrocities Eyal Mayroz University of Sydney, Australia

	Here Be Dragons: Charting the Language of Tribunal Prosecutions Willa Rae Witherow-Culpepper Rutgers University Newark, New Jersey	Wilfrid Laurier University, Canada	Yale University
4:15pm - 4:35pm	Coffee Break
4:40pm - 6:00pm	Session B4.1: Law and Policies Surrounding the Rohingya Genocide Location: Room D201 Chair: Quazi Omar Foysal, American International University- Bangladesh, Bangladesh, People's Republic of Transitional Justice and Criminology: A Study on Myanmar's Rohingya as a Case of Atrocity Crimes and Human Rights Abuses Mohammad Pizuar Hossain East West University, Bangladesh, People's Republic of NGO roles in the implementation of Responsibility to Protect (R2P): Navigating the boundaries of international law in the Rohingya Crisis Tonny Raymond Kirabira University of Portsmouth, United Kingdom Exclusion Policies: The deprivation of the right to education of the Rohingya Children Shaoli Dasgupta Liberation War Museum, Bangladesh	Session B4.2: Beyond Reality: Authoritarianism and Exclusion in Cultural Products Location: Room D202 Chair: Stavros Evdokimos Pantazopoulos, Asser Institute, Greece Creativity and Discontent: A Critical Discourse Analysis of Expressions of Antisemitism in Discourses About Right-Extremist Computer Games in the Forum Stormfront. Astrid Juckenack Philipps-University Marburg, Germany Exclusionary Fictions: Scenes of First Contact in the Cinematic Genre of Science Fiction. Daniel William Conway Texas A&M University, United States of America Reimagining Necropolitical Authoritarianism in Africa: The Politics of Death and Reproductive Futurism in Nnedi Okorafor's Afr(i)futurist Novels Ifeoluwa Adeniyi English Department, The University of Winnipeg, Canada	Session B4.3: Political Repression, Genocide and Resistance in Asia Location: Room D203 Chair: Tawheed Reza Noor, BINGHAMTON UNIVERSITY, United States of America Post-9/11 Accountability for De Facto Genocide - Lessons Learned from Sri Lanka Rajeev Sreetharan, Jeevan Justin Neethi, Canada #StopHazaraGenocide: The situation of Hazaras in Afghanistan following the Taliban takeover Zabi Mazoori, Dallas Mazoori Independent Researcher, Australia The path of least resistance: isolation as a policy of repression in Turkmenistan Willemijn Emma Born^{1,2}, Maartje Weerdesteijn^{1,2}, Joris van Wijk^{1,2} 1: Vrije Universiteit Amsterdam; 2: Center for International Criminal Justice	Session B4.4: The 1994 Genocide against the Tutsi in Rwanda Location: Room D206 Chair: Ken MacLean, Clark University, United States of America The 1994 Genocide against the Tutsi in Rwanda Chair(s): Ken MacLean (Clark University) Presentations of the Symposium Excusing the Self and Blaming Others: Participation in Genocide and the Fundamental Attribution Error Jamie Wise; wise.1190@buckeyemail.osu.edu Ohio State University Memorialization and Musealisation of the Genocide against the Tutsi: Dignity and Dead Body Politics Eric Sibomana; Eric.sibomana@oeaw.ac.at The University of Vienna	Session B4.5: The Situation in Nagorno-Karabakh Location: Room D308 Chair: Armen Marsoobian, Southern Connecticut State University/University of Connecticut, United States of America Second Karabakh War: Is there another genocide on the horizon? Margarita Tadevosyan George Mason University, United States of America The Karabakh Flashpoint: Turkish authoritarian rule and the recurrence of genocide Ani Garabed Ohanian Clark University, United States of America Fragmented Amputations: A Voice for Artsakh Armine Hovhannisyan INDEPENDENT ARTIST, Armenia
6:15pm - 8:00pm	Local Partner: Memorial Democràtic: The Jewish People and the Gipsy People during Nazism and Francoism. Extermination and Persecution Location: School of Law - Saló de Grados		Women: Women's Caucus afterwork Location: Santa Clara's Terrace Women's Caucus afterwork at the restaurant Santa Clara's terrace. Address: Jiménez i Iglesias, 11-13 (5 minutes walk from the Faculty of Law)

Date: Wednesday, 12/July/2023

8:30am - 4:00pm	Registration Location: School of Law - Hall (New Building)
8:45am - 10:05am	Session C1.1: Bringing an Atrocity Prevention Lens to Higher Education: New Initiatives Location: Room D201 Chair: Kerry Edward Whigham , Binghamton University, United States of America Bringing an Atrocity Prevention Lens to Higher Education: New Initiatives Chair(s): Kerry Whigham (Institute for Genocide and Mass Atrocity Prevention, Binghamton University, United States of America) Presentations of the Symposium The Special Advisor's Initiatives for Atrocity Prevention in Undergraduate Education: Focus on the Global South Alice Nderitu ; alice.nderitu@un.org Office of the Special Advisor to the Secretary General on Genocide Prevention, United Nations Professional Prevention Training in Higher Education: I-GMAP's Master of Science in Genocide and Mass Atrocity Prevention Kerry Whigham ; kwhigham@binghamton.edu Institute for Genocide and Mass Atrocity Prevention, Binghamton University	Session C1.2: Processes of Genocide and Genocide Prevention Location: Room D202 Chair: Gregory H Stanton , Genocide Watch, United States of America Processes of Genocide and Genocide Prevention Chair(s): Gregory H Stanton (Genocide Watch, United States of America) Presentations of the Symposium Genocidal Intent and State Responsibility Under the Genocide Convention Gregory Stanton ; president@genocidewatch.org Genocide Watch "Call Them by Their True Names": Comparing the United States Violence Against Women Act to Chile's Femicide Laws Jordan Lambdin ; jlambdin@genocidewatch.org Genocide Watch Femicide in Mexico: A Continuing Crisis Grace Condon ; gcondon@genocidewatch.org Genocide Watch	Session C1.3: Commemoration Culture: Memorialisation and the Holocaust in the 21st Century Location: Room D203 Chair: Alina Nowobiliska , Pilecki Institute, Poland Commemoration Culture: Memorialisation and the Holocaust in the 21st Century Chair(s): Alina Nowobiliska (Pilecki Institute, Poland) Presentations of the Symposium The Commemoration of the First Mass Transport into Auschwitz: a Study of Poland and Other Nations Alina Nowobiliska ; a.nowobiliska@instytutpileckiego.pl Pilecki Institute, Poland Apostle-Victim-Saint: The Martyrs of Nowogrodek and Preformative Commemorations of Catholic Victims of the Holocaust Karen Uslin ; kuslin@defiantrequiem.org The Defiant Requiem Foundation A Plea for Commemorative Equality: The Holocaust, Factual Specificity, and Commemorative Prioritisation Harry Legg ; harry.legg@gmail.com Edinburgh University
10:10am - 10:30am	Coffee Break
10:35am - 11:55am	Session C1.4: Genocide and Violence at Court Location: Room D206 Chair: Rosa Ana Alija Fernández , University of Barcelona, Spain Legal Obstacles to State Responsibility for Atrocity Crimes before Domestic and International Judicial Bodies Yvonne Eva Breitwieser-Faria The University of Queensland, Australia Trials during wartime: War crimes cases during the Bosnian war 1992-95 Hikmet Karcic University of Sarajevo, Bosnia and Herzegovina Interpreting sexual violence and masculinity in the tribunal space: Male victims of sexual violence at the International Criminal Tribunal for Rwanda Anna Gopsill University of London, United Kingdom	Session C1.5: Kurdish Genocide Recognition Location: Room D308 Chair: Awring Shaways , KG Lobby Center, Netherlands, The Kurdish Genocide Recognition Chair(s): Awring Shaways (KG Lobby Center), Sylvia Ronnau (KG Lobby Center) Presentations of the Symposium The Recognition of the Kurdish Genocide: A Legal Analysis Sylvia Ronnau ; sronnau5@stanfordalumni.org KG Lobby Center No Genocide with Impunity: The Necessity of Reparations for the Kurd Survivors Awring Shaways ; awringshaways@gmail.com KG Lobby Center Recognition or Rejection: The Quest to Recognize the Kurdish Genocide Sylvia Ronnau ; sronnau5@stanfordalumni.org KG Lobby Center
10:35am - 11:55am	Session C2.1: Social and Political Approaches to the Rwandan Genocide Location: Room D201 Chair: Tonny Raymond Kirabira , University of Portsmouth, United Kingdom Muslim Exceptionalism and the 1994 Genocide of Tutsi in Rwanda Jennie Burnet	Session C2.2: Genocide & Torture Narratives in War Location: Room D202 Chair: Yuliya Mik , The Hebrew University of Jerusalem, Israel Death in the High Mountains: Genocide in the Soviet-Afghan War Brenden Charles Malloy	Session C2.3: Challenges to Fight against Hate Speech in the eyes of Bangladeshi Young Researchers Location: Room D203 Chair: Mofidul Hoque , Liberation War Museum, Bangladesh, People's Republic of Challenges to Fight against Hate Speech in the eyes of Bangladeshi Young Researchers

Georgia State University, United States of America		West Chester University, United States of America		Chair(s): Mofidul Hoque (Liberation War Museum, Bangladesh, People's Republic of)
We Stand Together: Patriotism and Social Obligation in the Interahamwe Militia Alison M. Avery Clark University, United States of America		The (in)visible genocide. The use of images in Russian narrative during the 2022 Ukrainian invasion Flavia Lucenti, Cecilia Ducci University of Bologna, Italy		Presentations of the Symposium
Hate Speech, Misrepresentation and Official Propaganda as Catalysts of Ethnic Driven Violence: Cross Generic Reading of Post Rwandan Genocide Francophone African Testimonios Chukwuka Boniface Nweze Federal University Kashere, Nigeria		Logics of Lawlessness: French Torture in Algeria, British Torture in Northern Ireland, and the Erosion of Human Rights Norms Lucy Jane Gaynor University of Amsterdam, Netherlands, The		Media Incitement to Genocide Mehjabin Nazrana; mehjabinnazrana27@gmail.com Center for the Study of Genocide and Justice, Liberation War Museum
				Lawsuit Against Meta (Facebook) for Promoting Hate Speech Against the Rohingyas Tabassum Islam Tamanna; tabassumtamannaislam@gmail.com Center for the Study of Genocide and Justice, Liberation War Museum
				Contemporary Hate Speech Campaign against the Religious Minorities in Bangladesh Tabassum Niger Oishi; tabassum.niger.oishi@g.bracu.ac.bd Center for the Study of Genocide and Justice, Liberation War Museum
				Addressing Hate Speech in Bangladesh in light of the UN Strategy and Plan of Action on Hate Speech Nusieba Jahan; nusiebadu@gmail.com Center for the Study of Genocide and Justice, Liberation War Museum
Session C2.4: Transitional Justice Issues in Nagorno-Karabakh Location: Room D206 Chair: Henry C. Theriault , Worcester State University, United States of America		Session C2.5: Perpetrators in Focus Location: Room D308 Chair: Rosa Ana Alija Fernández , University of Barcelona, Spain		Session C2.6: Local Partner: EUROM: Colonial violence and its legacies Location: Room D303
Transitional Justice Issues in Nagorno-Karabakh Chair(s): Henry Theriault (Worcester State University, US); henry.theriault@genocidescholars.org		The trauma-lens in perpetrator studies Bart Jouke Nauta ARQ National Psychotrauma Center, Netherlands, The & Utrecht University		Chair: Celeste Muñoz (UNED/European Observatory on Memories - EUROM)
Presentations of the Symposium		Trial as Punishment: Defendant Suffering and the Moral Experience of Atrocity Victims Shannon Fyfe George Mason University, United States of America		Shaping and perpetuating colonial narratives. Patagonia as a case study Cielo Zaldenweg (Grup d'Estudis sobre Cultures Indígenes i Afroamericanes - Universitat de Barcelona/Instituto de Investigaciones Estudios de Género – CONICET)
R2P Requirements for Nagorno-Karabakh Sheila Paylan; sheila.paylan@gmail.com UN human rights consultant		Forensic Biography - The Ongwen Trial and the Reconstitution of Perpetrator Lives Kjell Anderson University of Manitoba, Canada		Who is a civilized combatant? Discussions on the laws of warfare during the Philippine Revolution (1896-1902) Laura Díaz Esteve (Margarita Salas Postdoctoral Researcher - Universitat Pompeu Fabra – Consejo Superior de Investigaciones Científicas)
International Criminal Accountability for crimes in Nagorno-Karabakh Melanie O'Brien; melanie.obrien@uwa.edu.au University of Western Australia				Modern Slavery Scandals in Colonial Africa Enrique Martino Martín (Juan de la Cierva Postdoctoral Researcher, Departamento de Historia, Teorías y Geografía Política, Universidad Complutense de Madrid)
The need to establish a truth commission for the Nagorno-Karabakh armed conflict Elisenda Calvet Martinez; elisendacalvet@ub.edu Universitat de Barcelona, Spain
12:05pm - 1:35pm	Keynote: Arman Tatoyan: Genocidal Policies of Azerbaijan Against the Armenians of Artsakh Location: School of Law - Aula Magna Chair: Armen Marsoobian , Southern Connecticut State University/University of Connecticut, United States of America The keynote will address the evidence of genocidal policies against Armenia and the indigenous Armenians of Artsakh (Nagorno-Karabakh) by Azerbaijan and the urgent need for their prevention
1:40pm - 2:40pm	Lunch Location: School of Law - Hall (Main Building)	Women's Caucus Location: Room 1
2:50pm - 4:10pm	Session C3.1: Conflicting Narratives in Relation to Genocide Location: Room D201 Chair: Emily Sample , George Mason University; Fund for Peace, United States of America Genocide in the Greek public sphere. Amid far-right exploitation and left-wing denial. THEODOSIOS KYRIAKIDIS Aristotle University of Thessaloniki, Greece	Session C3.2: Crimes Against Humanity and the Risk of Genocide Against Armenians in the South Caucasus: Can International Law Move Beyond the Genocide Convention? Location: Room D202 Chair: Armen Marsoobian , Southern Connecticut State University/University of Connecticut, United States of America Crimes Against Humanity and the Risk of Genocide Against Armenians		Session C3.3: Third World Resistance against the Politics of Genocide and Its Denial Location: Room D203 Chair: Helen Jarvis , IAGS, Cambodia Third World Resistance against the Politics of Genocide and Its Denial Chair(s): Helen Jarvis (Permanent People's Tribunal)

	Exclusionary nationalism, genocide denial and state repression in South Sudan Clemence Pinaud Indiana University, United States of America Negotiating Authoritarian Environment to Complicate Post-Genocide Narrative in Cambodia Annie Rappeport University of Maryland College Park, United States of America	in the South Caucasus: Can International Law Move Beyond the Genocide Convention? Chair(s): Armen Marsoobian (Southern Connecticut State University/University of Connecticut, United States of America) Presentations of the Symposium Self-determination and the Prevention of Genocide Karnig Kerkonian; kkerkonian@kerkonianandajani.com KERKONIAN DAJANI LLP Hate Crimes, Discrimination, Disinformation and the Risk of Genocide Against Armenians in the South Caucasus: Can International Law Move Beyond the Genocide Convention? Arman Tatoyan; arman.tatoyan@gmail.com American University of Armenia Hate Crimes, Discrimination, Disinformation and the Risk of Genocide Against Armenians in the South Caucasus: Can International Law Move Beyond the Genocide Convention? Armine Aleksanyan; alexarmine@gmail.com Independent Scholar	Presentations of the Symposium Drafting the UN Genocide Convention of 1948: Marginalized Voice of a Woman from Bengal and the Muslim World Mofidul Hoque; mofidul_hoque@yahoo.com Liberation War Museum, Bangladesh, People's Republic of The Abuse of Holocaust Memory in India and Pakistan Navras J. Aafreedi; Aafreedi@gmail.com Department of History, Presidency University, Kolkata, India Genocide Denial in the post-1971 Bangladesh: Its Political Trends and the Lessons for Democracy Emraan Azad; emraan.law@gmail.com Liberation War Museum, Bangladesh, People's Republic of
	Session C3.4: The Plight of Unwanted Peoples in DR Congo: The Banyamulenge Genocide in Perspective Location: Room D206 Chair: Thomas Richard Harry Shacklock, Genocide Watch, United Kingdom The Plight of Unwanted Peoples in DR Congo: The Banyamulenge Genocide in Perspective Chair(s): Thomas Richard Harry Shacklock (Genocide Watch) Presentations of the Symposium The Phenomenon of Unwanted Peoples: The Case of the Rohingya Genocide Ahmed Kawser; k.ahmed@uwinnipeg.ca The University of Winnipeg The Targeting and Destruction of an Unwanted People: An Analysis of the Banyamulenge Genocide in DR Congo Delphin Rukumbuzi Ntanyoma; rkmbz1973@gmail.com International Institute of Social Studies, Erasmus University Rotterdam The Genocide of Unwanted Peoples and the State of a Digital Planet: Parallels between the Rohingya and the Banyamulenge Helen Hintjens; hintjens@iss.nl International Institute of Social Studies, Erasmus University Rotterdam Narrating the Banyamulenge's Genocide in DR Congo: False Equivalencies, False Dichotomies, and Underreported Violence Thomas Shacklock; tshacklock@genocidewatch.org Genocide Watch	Session C3.5: Perspectives on Mass Atrocity Location: Room D308 Chair: Sarah Snyder, Binghamton University, United States of America The Ideological Infrastructure of Genocides and Mass Atrocities Jonathan Leader Maynard King's College London, United Kingdom Modeling Social Media Disinformation on Mass Atrocities and Instability Ernesto Verdeja University of Notre Dame, United States of America Reaching Beyond the Limits of Legal Responses to Mass Atrocities Juliane Prade-Weiss¹, Vladimir Petrović², Dominik Markl³ 1: Ludwig Maximilian University Munich, Germany; 2: Institute for Contemporary History Belgrade, Serbia; 3: Pontifical Biblical Institute Rome, Italy
4:15pm - 4:35pm	Coffee Break

4:40pm - 6:00pm	Session C4.1: Gendered exclusion, gendered resistance Location: Room D201 Chair: Nélida Elena boulgourdjian, University of Tres de Febrero, Argentine Republic The myth of the sexual predator against unaccompanied children in Spain: past, present and forms of contestation. Isabel Maravall-Buckwalter CUNEF University, Spain Crusaders, sodomists, adulterers. The use of 'deviant' sexuality in the ISIS propaganda-publications Dabiq and Rumiya. Astrid Juckenack Philipps-University Marburg, Germany Queer Resistance to Authoritarian Exclusion Stephen Louis Capobianco Over Zero, United States of America	Session C4.2: Cultural Genocide of Armenians in the South Caucasus Location: Room D202 Chair: Armen Marsoobian, Southern Connecticut State University/University of Connecticut, United States of America Cultural Genocide of Armenians in the South Caucasus Chair(s): Armen Marsoobian (Southern Connecticut State University/University of Connecticut, United States of America) Presentations of the Symposium The Museum and the 44-day Artsakh War Haykuhi Muradyan; haykuhi.muradyan@ysu.am Yerevan State University Literary Ethnic Cleansing: The Erasure of Armenians from the Azerbaijani Literature Ararat Şekeryan; sekeryan@gmail.com Columbia University Overview of the Concept of Cultural Genocide & A Presentation of the Work of Caucasus Heritage Watch Armen Tsolag Marsoobian; marsoobian@southernct.edu Southern Connecticut State University	Session C4.3: Visual Narratives of Violence Location: Room D203 Chair: Shelly Clay-Robison, University of Baltimore, United States of America Recording testimony of the Rohingya victims to witness the horror of persecution and prospects of voluntary repatriation: An Analysis from the film making process Md Khalid Rahman American International University- Bangladesh, Bangladesh, People's Republic of Patterns of Perpetration in Documentaries on Genocide Julian Koch University of Copenhagen, Denmark Militarized Masculinity in Spain and Chile: A video-essay Lisa Renee DiGiovanni Keene State College, United States of America
6:15pm - 8:00pm	Session C4.4: Genocide in Literature Location: Room D206 Chair: Loren James Persi Vicentic, Faculty of Media and Communication, Serbia Excluded from Motherhood: Representing the "Stolen Generation" of Rwanda in Beata Umubyeyi Mairesse's Consolée (2022) Nathalie Segéral University of Hawaii at Manoa, USA, University of Sydney, Australia Tragedy in Rwanda and Tragedy in Greece: A study of the Greek chorus in Murambi, The Book of Bones Beverley Joy Pratt University of the Western Cape, South Africa	Session C4.5: Genocide in International Law Location: Room D308 Chair: Stavros Evdokimos Pantazopoulos, Asser Institute, Greece Opening a Pandora's Box: Peremptory Norms of General International Law and Retroactive Application of the Law against Genocide Onur Uraz Hacettepe University, Turkiye The norm cluster on the prohibition of genocide: still up to the challenge? Cecilia Ducci University of Bologna, Italy The ICJ and the Duty to Prevent Genocide at Fifteen Marco Longobardo University of Westminster, United Kingdom	Session C4.6: Emerging Scholars World Cafe Location: Room D303 The emerging scholars world cafe is a session where senior and mid career scholars will offer advice to IAGS emerging scholars in the areas of: policy, publications, funding, and career. The session is informal, there will be one table for each area and the emerging scholars join one table and ask questions of the scholars advising. Emerging scholars will move every 15-20 minutes to the next table so there is an opportunity to participate and ask questions on every table.
	Local Partner: ICIP: Film: Del Otro Lado (Colombia) Location: School of Law - Aula Magna With Ivan Guarnizo (director) y Güerima (ex-member of the FARC), presented by Silvia Plana (ICIP). Translation into English available

Date: Thursday, 13/July/2023

8:30am - 4:00pm	Registration Location: School of Law - Hall (New Building)
8:45am - 10:05am	Session D1.1: Mass Violence in America Location: Room D201 Chair: Kawser ahmed , University of Winnipeg, Canada Do Social Bonds Increase Mass Violence or Do They Restrict it? Jean-Philippe Belleau University of Massachusetts Boston, United States of America The Gray Zone: Familial Legacies of the October 1964 Vêpres de Jérémie Massacre in François "Papa Doc" Duvalier's Haiti John W. Sherman Wright State University, United States of America Mapping the Chalatenango Massacres: Collaborative Research with Civil War Survivors in El Salvador Amanda Florence Grzyb Western University, Canada	Session D1.2: Nigeria: From the Biafran Genocide to Ethnic Crises Location: Room D202 Chair: Fasika Yosef , Amhara Women Association Against Genocide Incorporated, United States of America (Re)membering Biafra: Trauma, History and the Making of a Genocide Maureen Ngozi Eke Central Michigan University, United States of America Narrating Biafra Famine: Genocide and Postcolonial Authoritarianism in Nigeria Chigbo Arthur Anyaduba The University of Winnipeg, Canada Transitional Justice and the Question of Ethnic Crises in Nigeria Olakunle Michael Folami Adekunle Ajasin University, Nigeria	Session D1.3: Genocide Denial as Genocide Warning Location: Room D203 Chair: Gregory H Stanton , Genocide Watch, United States of America Genocide Denial as Genocide Warning Chair(s): Gregory Stanton (Genocide Watch, USA) Presentations of the Symposium The New Nazism Gregory Stanton ; president@genocidewatch.org Genocide Watch The risk of underestimating exclusionary rhetoric in today's Europe Giada Corsoni ; giadacors@gmail.com Genocide Watch "Ethnic cleansing is a euphemism used for genocide denial" Jordan Lambdin ; jlambdin@umassd.edu Genocide Watch My Last Lecture: Putting Moral Agency and the Precautionary Principle to Work for the Prevention of Genocide and its Incitement Gregory Stanton ; president@genocidewatch.org Genocide Watch	Session D1.4: The Complexities of International Justice Location: Room D206 Chair: Yuliya Mik , The Hebrew University of Jerusalem, Israel Godot Showed Up, At Last: The ICC and the Politics of Prosecutorial Procrastination in Georgia Marco Bocchese Webster Vienna Private University, Austria Socialization Processes on Trial: The Complexities of Dominic Ongwen Carse Ramos Rhode Island College, United States of America The Impact of the Third-Party Interventions to the ICJ Ukraine Genocide Allegation Case on the Responsibility to Protect Regime Related to Genocide Quazi Omar Foysal American International University-Bangladesh, Bangladesh, People's Republic of Bangladesh	Session D1.5: Preventing Genocide Location: Room D308 Chair: Birhanu Geremew , Debre Markos University, Ethiopia The Atrocity Prevention Toolbox: A Systematic Review Sascha Naniohy¹ , Daniel Solomon² , Lawrence Wooscher² , Kyra Fox⁵ , Tallan Donine² , Jessica Moody³ , Alex Hall⁴ 1: The University of Sydney, Australia; 2: United States Holocaust Memorial Museum; 3: United States Institute of Peace; 4: Ploughshares Fund; 5: National Endowment for Democracy The Role of Leadership in Genocide Prevention Deborah Mayersen University of New South Wales Canberra at the Australian Defence Force Academy, Australia Is Democracy a Risk Factor for Genocide? Henry C. Theriault Worcester State University, United States of America
10:10am - 10:30am	Coffee Break
10:35am - 11:55am	Session D2.1: Reframing Genocide Studies Location: Room D201 Chair: Ararat Sekeryan , Columbia University in the City of New York, United States of America 75 Years Later: Modification of the 1948 UN Definition offers innovative approach in Genocide Studies Brenda Gaydosch West Chester University of PA, United States of America Retooling Justice for	Session D2.2: The Impact of Climate Change Location: Room D202 Chair: Elisenda Calvet Martinez , Universitat de Barcelona, Spain Environmental Resilience in Genocide and Mass Atrocity Prevention Emily Sample George Mason University; Fund for Peace Environmental Harm, Exclusion and Structural Injustice Rachel Killeen¹ , Lauren Dempster²	Session D2.3: Indigneous Genocide in Native North America and Aboriginal Australia Location: Room D203 Chair: Benedict F. Kiernan , Yale University, United States of America Indigneous Genocide in Native North America and Aboriginal Australia Chair(s): Ben Kiernan (Yale University) Presentations of the Symposium "Too Furious": The Genocide of Connecticut's Pequot Indians, 1636-1640 Benjamin Madley ; Madley@ucla.edu University of California, Los Angeles Genocide in Van Diemen's Land (Tasmania), 1803-	Session D2.4: Interweaving transitional justice's backward and forward-looking functions by formulating more concrete pathways of impact Location: Room D206 Chair: Tine Destrooper , Ghent University, Belgium Interweaving transitional justice's backward and forward-looking functions by formulating more concrete pathways of impact Chair(s): Tine Destrooper (Ghent University, Belgium), Cira Palli-Aspero (Ghent University, Belgium) Presentations of the Symposium Understanding the unforeseen consequences of an incomplete transitional justice ecology in the Philippines	Session D2.5: The Role of Education in Preventing Genocide Location: Room D308 Chair: Paul Kutner , Yeshiva University, United States of America Holocaust and Peace: Realizing a Collaborative Teaching Resource in Bosnia and Herzegovina Kate English Educators' Institute for Human Rights (EIHR), United States of America Genocide Awareness: Are We Even Aware Kerri Malloy

	Peoples and Nations Regina M Paulose N/A, United States of America Decentering the Human in Dehumanisation: Un-Making, Un-Becoming and a Post-Anthropocentric Genocide Studies Andrew Woolford University of Manitoba, Canada	1: University of Sydney, Australia; 2: Queen's University Belfast, Northern Ireland (In)security and Climate Change: Displacement at the Door Manasa Bollempalli Rutgers University, United States of America	1871 Rebe Taylor; Rebe.Taylor@utas.edu.au University of Tasmania "Lessons from Canada: The Question of Genocide in US Boarding Schools for Native Americans" Preston McBride; preston.mcbride@pomona.edu Pomona College	Tine Destrooper; tine.destrooper@ugent.be Ghent University, Belgium Victims as interactive agents of change in transitional justice: shaping the pathways of transition and overcoming harm Marit De Haan; Marit.DeHaan@ugent.be Ghent University, Belgium The complexities of participation in transitional justice: a critical exploration of victims' experiences in the aftermath of the Ixil genocide in Guatemala Gretel Mejia Bonifazi; Gretel.Mejia@UGent.be Ghent University, Belgium Redressing the colonial harm: framing historical commissions within transitional justice Cira Palli-Aspero; cira.palliaspero@ugent.be Ghent University, Belgium	San Jose State University, United States of America How school exclusion fuels conflict and genocide Samara Hand UNSW, Australia
12:05pm - 1:35pm	Keynote: Elissa Bemporad: A Time to Live and A Time to Die, A Time to Remember and a Time to Forget: Temporality and anti-Jewish Violence in the Age of the Pogrom Location: School of Law - Aula Magna Chair: Armen Marsoobian, Southern Connecticut State University/University of Connecticut, United States of America
1:40pm - 2:40pm	Indigenous People's Caucus Location: Room 1		Lunch Location: School of Law - Hall (Main Building)
2:50pm - 4:10pm	Session D3.1: Reexamining Canadian Indian Residential Schools Location: Room D201 Chair: Alenka Antloga, Information Commissioner of the Republic of Slovenia, United Nations Association of Slovenia, Slovenia Promises of Non-Recurrence and Transformative Change after Canada's Truth and Reconciliation Commission Tricia Logan University of British Columbia, Canada The Canadian Indian Residential Schools - A Slow Colonial Genocide Selen Kazan TU Dortmund, Germany Canadian Indian Residential School System: A Colonial Genocide? International Law Perspectives	Session D3.2: The Rise of Populism Location: Room D202 Chair: Birhanu Geremew, Debre Markos University, Ethiopia "It Can't Happen Here"? American Democracy and Fascism John Cox UNC Charlotte Center for Holocaust, Genocide & Human Rights Studies, United States of America Populism, Denialism, and Rising sectarianism: A case study of Bosnia and Herzegovina Ambreen Yousuf Jamia Millia Islamia University, India The rise of Right Wing Populism in Sweden Julia Hermine Charlotte Sahlstrom Stockholm University, Sweden	Session D3.3: The Problems of Genocide: A Discussion Location: Room D203 Chair: A. Dirk Moses, City College of New York, United States of America The Problems of Genocide: A Discussion Chair(s): A. Dirk Moses (City College of New York, United States of America), Deborah Mayersen (Australian Defence Force Academy) Presentations of the Symposium The Problems of Genocide and the International System Deborah Mayersen; d.mayersen@adfa.edu.au Australian Defence Force Academy The Problems of Genocide in Settler Colonial Perspective Andrew Woolford; Andrew.Woolford@umanitoba.ca University of Manitoba Are there Problems of Genocide for Political Science? Ernesto Verdeja; Ernesto.Verdeja.1@nd.edu University of Notre Dame The Problems of Genocide Explained A Dirk Moses; dirkmoses@ccny.cuny.edu The City College of New York	Session D3.4: The Rohingya: Genocide, Exclusion, Resistance and Justice Location: Room D206 Chair: Ronan Lee, Loughborough University London, United Kingdom The Rohingya: Genocide, Exclusion, Resistance and Justice Chair(s): Ronan Lee (Loughborough University London), Cecilia Ducci (University of Bologna) Presentations of the Symposium Knowledge-practices of political alternatives: Transforming the Rohingya crisis from inter-communal violence to genocide Yuriko Cowper-Smith; yuriko@thesentinelproject.org The Sentinel Project Getting away with genocide in the 21st century: how possible and legitimate? Cecilia Ducci; cecilia.ducci2@unibo.it University of Bologna Rohingya refugees in Bangladesh: our terminological dilemma vs. their battle for being alive Sabrina Ahmed; Sabrina.ahmed@uea.ac.uk University of East Anglia Who is responsible for Ethnic Cleansing? Evidence from experiments in the Rohingya Refugee Camps in Bangladesh	Session D3.5: Authoritarianism and Genocide: The Bangladesh Case Location: Room D308 Chair: Tawheed Reza Noor, BINGHAMTON UNIVERSITY, United States of America Authoritarianism and Genocide: The Bangladesh Case Chair(s): Tawheed Reza Noor (Binghamton University, SUNY) Presentations of the Symposium The State-sponsored Discriminatory Laws and Social Practices leading to the Bangladesh Genocide of 1971: An Appraisal Emraan Azad; emraan.law@gmail.com Bangladesh University of Professionals Propaganda campaign against Bengali nationals during Pakistan regimes: Analysis of Media representation leading to Genocide in 1971 Md Asaduzzaman; masaduzz@asu.edu Arizona State University

	Francesca Cerulli University of Florence, Italy			Rudabeh Shahid; rshahid@oberlin.edu Oberlin College Exclusionary narratives at Twitter's #WhatsHappeningInMyanmar: Have public pressures for genocide against Rohingya lessened in Myanmar? Ronan Lee; r.lee@lboro.ac.uk Loughborough University London	Sheikh Mujibur Rahman's historic victory in 1970 election: A culmination point for the authoritarian Pakistani junta committing genocide? Tawheed Reza Noor; tnoor@binghamton.edu Binghamton University, SUNY What did we learn? How did we do? Linking the Past Authoritarianism and Genocide with Future Atrocity Prevention in Bangladesh Md Shahriar Islam; sislam@tarleton.edu Tarleton State University
4:15pm - 4:35pm	Coffee Break
4:40pm - 6:00pm	Session D4.1: Remembering the Rwandan Genocide Location: Room D201 Chair: Francois Masabo, University of Rwanda, Rwanda Curating Collective Memory: Remembering and Forgetting in Rwanda, 28 years on Beverley Joy Pratt University of the Western Cape, South Africa Creation of a National Memorial and Memory in Rwanda Stephanie Wolfe Weber State University, United States of America Churches in Rwanda: remembering those places of worship turned killing sites. Anna-Marie de Beer University of Pretoria, South Africa	Session D4.2: The Cambodian Genocide Today Location: Room D202 Chair: Loren James Persi Vicentic, Faculty of Media and Communication, Serbia The Khmer Rouge Trials and Minorities: Social Exclusion and Repair after Genocide Christoph Sperfeldt Macquarie University, Australia The Historiographic Value of Conspiratorial Fantasies: Making Sense of Vietnamese Confessions in the Khmer Rouge Archives Ken MacLean Clark University, United States of America Spectres of the Khmer Rouge in Cambodian governance today Caroline Bennett University of Sussex, United Kingdom	Session D4.3: Challenging Collective Memory in Twenty-First Century Europe and Latin America: Battles for the Past Within the Political, Legal, and Cultural Spaces Location: Room D203 Chair: Rosa Ana Alija Fernández, University of Barcelona, Spain Challenging Collective Memory in Twenty-First Century Europe and Latin America: Battles for the Past Within the Political, Legal, and Cultural Spaces Chair(s): Rosa Ana Alija Fernández (University of Barcelona, Spain) Presentations of the Symposium The demands for memory, truth and justice among perpetrators of State terrorism in Argentina Virginia Vecchioli; vvecchioli@gmail.com Universidade Federal de Santa Maria The struggle for memory in Chile: social activism, strategic litigation, institutional retaliation Francisco Félix Bustos Bustos; fbustos@derecho.uchile.cl Universidad de Chile Memories of Complicity: A Transnational Case Study from "Final Account: Third Reich Testimonies" Zoltán Kékesi; kekesiz@gmail.com Centre for Collective Violence, Holocaust and Genocide Studies, University College London Remembrance education in Spain: indoctrination or	Session D4.4: Indigenous Peoples in Latin America Location: Room D206 Chair: Rudabeh Shahid, Oberlin College, United States of America The Awa extermination: a contemporary colonial genocide Andrés Gómez Tarazona El Turbió, Newspaper Beyond cultural genocide: Indigenismo in Mexico as a policy of destruction Ana Laura Velasco Ugalde University of Bremen, Germany General Efraín Ríos Montt: Towards a New Guatemala without Indigenous Mayas Vera Patricia Burrows University of Texas at Austin, United States of America

			an international legal duty of the State? Rosa Ana Alija Fernández; ralija@ub.edu University of Barcelona
4:40pm - 6:45pm	Session D4.5: Defiant Requiem (Documentary Film) Location: School of Law - Salón de Grados Defiant Requiem (Documentary Film) Karen Uslin Defiant Requiem Foundation, United States of America
8:30pm - 11:00pm	Conference Dinner & Awards

Date: Friday, 14/July/2023

8:30am - 12:30pm	Registration Location: School of Law - Hall (New Building)
8:45am - 10:05am	Session E1.1: Women's experiences Location: Room D201 Chair: Kate English , Educators' Institute for Human Rights (EIHR), United States of America Within-Group Moralizing: Women Formerly Incarcerated for Genocide in Rwanda Jacob Caponi University of Michigan, United States of America Ritual in Hybrid Peacebuilding: A Case Study in Post-Conflict Lira, Uganda Lauren Alyce Dahler The Ohio State University, United States of America From survivor to victim: narrative of the women of Bangladesh Genocide ShaoLi Dasgupta Liberation War Museum, Bangladesh	Session E1.2: War and Genocide Against the Kurds Location: Room D202 Chair: Birhanu Geremew , Debre Markos University, Ethiopia Briefly about the impact of the Kurdish war and genocide on the environment of South Kurdistan. Fatima Murad Mala , Hashim Hasan Yousif Life Organization to Prevent War and Clean up the Environment from War Remnants (L.P.W.E), Iraq The Syrian government's practices toward the Kurds in Syria between 1962 and 2011 Sherwan Qasem Doctors Without Borders (Médicos Sin Fronteras). university of Amsterdam, Netherlands, The Authoritarianism and Genocide: Narratives of Exclusion of Failli Kurds in Iraq Ibrahim Sadiq Soran University	Session E1.3: Democracy at Risk Location: Room D203 Chair: Elisenda Calvet Martinez , Universitat de Barcelona, Spain Infrastructures of Impunity for Genocide under Authoritarianism and Democracy Elizabeth F. Drexler Michigan State University, United States of America Democratic Backsliding and Mass Atrocities: The Role of the Legislature Jack Mayerhofer Auschwitz Institute for the Prevention of Genocide and Mass Atrocities, United States of America "It Can Happen Here" -- White Replacement Fear, Race, and Politics in the U.S. Alexander Hinton Rutgers University, United States of America
	Session E1.4: Atrocities in Bosnia Location: Room D206 Chair: Maureen Eke , Central Michigan University, United States of America Mass atrocities in Bosnian government and Bosnian Croat camps: a neglected historical narrative Andreas Moeller King's College London, United Kingdom From State Ideology to Criminal Action: A Multi-level Framework of Atrocity Crimes in the Municipality of Bosanski Šamac Mirjana Birgitta Gavrilović Nilsson University of Edinburgh, United Kingdom Framing Bosniak Muslims as "Islamic fundamentalists" as justification of genocide and war crimes against them from 1980s till 2020s Ehlimana Memisevic University of Sarajevo Faculty of Law, Bosnia and Herzegovina	Session E1.5: Stories about the Armenian Genocide Location: Room D308 Chair: Igor Pérez Tostado , Universidad Pablo de Olavide de Sevilla, Spain Talat Pasha's Genocide Technocrat: A Biography of Mustafa Reşat Mimaroğlu Umit Kurt University of Newcastle, Australia "Armin T. Wegners (1886-1978) Photo Collection on the Armenian Genocide" Tigran Sarukhanyan Berlin State Office of Education, Youth and Family, Germany Development of crimes against humanity within the Context of the Hamidian Massacres and Armenian Genocide Edita Gzoyan Armenian Genocide Museum-Institute Foundation, Armenia	Session E1.6: A State Responsibility Approach to Responding to Breaches of the Genocide Convention Location: Room D303 Chair: Yonah Diamond , Raoul Wallenberg Centre for Human Rights, Canada A State Responsibility Approach to Responding to Breaches of the Genocide Convention Chair(s): Yonah Diamond (Raoul Wallenberg Centre for Human Rights, Canada), Erin Rosenberg (Mukwege Foundation), John Packer (University of Ottawa) Presentations of the Symposium An Alternative Theory of Genocidal Intent Yonah Diamond ; yonahdiamond@rwchr.org RWCHR Essential Distinctions of the Genocide Convention under the Law of State Responsibility Prof. Frederick John Packer ; jpacker@uottawa.ca University of Ottawa, Human Rights Research and Education Centre
10:10am - 10:30am	Coffee Break
10:35am - 11:55am	Session E2.1: Genocide in Ethiopia Location: Room D201 Chair: Ararat Sekeryan , Columbia University in the City of New York, United States of America Showcasing Transparency in Ethiopia: A Proposal for Building Trust through the Ethiopian National Dialogue Commission Robert E D Bustin SIL International, Ethiopia Branch Genocidal violence in authoritarian Ethiopia: The Amhara case	Session E2.2: Perspectives on the Holocaust Location: Room D202 Chair: Umit Kurt , University of Newcastle, Australia Holocaust Bystanders: A History of the Modern State Raz Segal Stockton University, United States of America The French Protestant Paradox: How did the most modern secular state	Session E2.3: Authoritarianism and the Armenian Genocide Location: Room D203 Chair: Emraan Azad , Liberation War Museum, Bangladesh, People's Republic of The Authoritarian Ottoman Theocratic Regime Paved the Way for The Young-Turk Genocide of Armenians Rubina Peroomian formerly, UCLA, United States of America Cultivating Religious Enmity and Armenophobia: Turkish

	Fasika Yosef Amhara Women Association Against Genocide Incorporated, United States of America <hr/> Colonialism and Genocide in a Non-colonised Society: Italy's Historical Narratives and the Amhara Genocide of Ethiopia Birhanu Geremew Debre Markos University, Ethiopia	allow for a formidable rescue based on the most religious convictions? Paul Kutner Yeshiva University, United States of America <hr/> Othering: subtle shortcomings in Germany's process of dealing with the past Valeria Vegh Weis Konstanz University, Germany	Authoritarianism and The Armenian Genocide Shushan Khachatryan Armenian Genocide Museum-Institute, Armenia <hr/> The Timeless Autarkic and Lebensraum: From Theory to Authoritarian Weapon in the Armenian Genocide, European Holocaust, and Beyond Joe Delap Athens State University, United States of America
	Session E2.4: The Impact of Genocide on Society and Time Location: Room D206 Chair: Kate English, Educators' Institute for Human Rights (EIHR), United States of America <hr/> Historical Justice: The Eichmann Trial as Social Transformation Sarah Lynne Crane University of Notre Dame, United States of America <hr/> Genocidal Intensity, Repetition, and Interdiction: A New Understanding of Time and Repair Henry C. Theriault Worcester State University, United States of America <hr/> The impact of the declaration of Jihad 1914, and the participation of the Kurds in the Assyrian genocide of 1915. Sabri Atman The University of Texas at Dallas, United States of America	Session E2.5: Exclusion and Discrimination Location: Room D308 Chair: Beverley Joy Pratt, University of the Western Cape, South Africa <hr/> Is the Citizenship (Amendment) Act (CAA) 2019 discriminatory? An international law perspective on India's CAA Pow Aim Hailowng Jawaharlal Nehru University, India <hr/> Off the record: observations of Roma presence and competing absences of recognition Loren James Persi Vicentic Faculty of Media and Communication, Singidunum University, Serbia <hr/> Genocidal Atrocities against Migrants in the United States: The Role of Ideology and History of White Nationalism Charles Christopher Weisbecker Stockton University, United States of America
12:05pm - 1:35pm	Keynote: Alfons Aragonese: History as battlefield: "Fake past" and Historiographical populism in the 21st Century Location: School of Law - Aula Magna Chair: Rosa Ana Alija Fernández, University of Barcelona, Spain
1:40pm - 2:40pm	Lunch Location: School of Law - Hall (Main Building)
2:45pm - 4:05pm	Session E3.1: Helen Fein & Roger Smith Tribute Panel Location: School of Law - Aula Magna Helen Fein & Roger Smith Tribute Panel Chair(s): Melanie O'Brien (UWA Law School & IAGS); melanie.obrien@uwa.edu.au Presentations of the Symposium Helen Fein: Scholar Activist and IAGS Pioneer Joyce Apsel; jaa5@nyu.edu Institute for the Study & NYU of Genocide; Helen Fein, Interdisciplinary Scholar Ernesto Verdeja; Ernesto.Verdeja.1@nd.edu Notre Dame University In memoriam Roger Smith Greg Sarkissian; k.m.gregsarkissian@gmail.com Zoryan Institute, Toronto
4:10pm - 5:10pm	Business Meeting Location: Room 1
5:10pm - 6:00pm	Concert: RIUH_HUIR Location: School of Law - Aula Magna

Date: Saturday, 15/July/2023

8:00am - 8:00pm	Visit A: Trip to the Rivesaltes Camp Memorial (France) & Exile Memorial Museum (La Jonquera) Registration needed (number of participants limited)
10:00am - 11:00am	Visit B: Visit to the Air-raid Shelter No. 232 Registration needed (number of participants limited)
3:00pm - 4:00pm	Visit C: Visit to the Model Prison (Barcelona) Registration needed (number of participants limited)